NATIONAL CAMP
ACCREDITATION PROGRAM

5 Year Authorization

facebook.com/halebsa

"This was our first time at Hale. We were very impressed with the merit badge staff... we had at least one special needs Scouter and the staff was very understanding. Our Scouters loved the kid oriented food... We are returning... and looking forward to our next experience. It was a hoot participating in the snow sports merit badge... (Oklahoma at 100F+) check it out, very creative!"

-Troop 420/320 Springfield, MO

"Great camp! Merit badge counselors are college aged students and they did a terrific job. Our boys were excited to see a varied selection of merit badges available to them. The highlight of the camp is the closing ceremony with the troop skits and a fireworks show!"

-Troop 44 Van Alstyne, TX

Hale Scout Reservation is a nationally accredited camp located in the beautiful Winding Stair Mountains in southeastern Oklahoma. In 2015 we are having our 85th birthday. We are going to celebrate by continuing to improve our program and facilities. Over the summer we collected a lot of great ideas from the leaders at camp and we are going to act on them. Read on to see what some of our plans are.

WORLD TURTLE DAY - CELEBRATE
LOCALLY - WIN ICE CREAM

Every May 23rd, the world unites to honor the mighty turtle. It's an opportunity to stop and think about everything that turtles do for us. Of course, Hale Scout Reservation is a strong supporter of this idea ever since we found out about it last week. We are making our preparations to celebrate on May 23rd, 2015. If you're going to Hale Scout Reservation, you should be making plans to celebrate at one of your troop meetings prior to camp. Your celebration does not have to be exactly on the 23rd, just sometime before you get to camp. Post your World Turtle Day photos or videos on the camp's Facebook page for a chance to win an ice cream party for your troop at camp. Mmmm... ice cream!
